Re: NYC Lion – Data for NYC Streets

Dear Mr. Kungys:

I write in response to your correspondence of September 7, 2011 and subsequent communications, in which you request permission, on behalf of yourself, as a contributing member of the public and volunteer contributor of Open Street Map, to reproduce certain material owned by the New York City Department of City Planning ("DCP"). The materials are identified in your correspondence as NYC LION data, available at <http://www.nyc.gov/html/dcp/html/bytes/dwnlion.shtml> (the "Materials"). The Materials will be uploaded to Open Street Map (www.openstreetmap.org) as digital GIS data to allow users to add the Materials to improve the available data over time (the "Permitted Use").

We have no objection to the reproduction of the Materials for the Permitted Use. DCP grants you, single use, non-exclusive permission, without the right to sublicense. You will contact the undersigned if you would like to reproduce the Materials beyond the Permitted Use.

Sincerely,

Glenn E. Friedman
